THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION, THE EUCHARIST, THE LORD'S SUPPER

In the United Church of Christ, several terms are used to refer to our sharing of the bread and the cup. Historically, views concerning Communion in our tradition have run the gamut from those who believe that Christ is symbolically present in the blessed bread and cup, to those who believe that we are sharing in a simple memorial meal as Jesus asked us to do "in remembrance of me." It is not unusual for some members of UCC congregations to hold views on Communion which stress the "real" presence of Christ in the bread and the cup (a traditional Roman Catholic view) or to believe that sharing the bread and the cup is a simple way to express our oneness as a faith community. Our theological differences enliven rather than divide.

WHAT YOU CAN DO...

- Bake cookies! Bring them to McSpadden Hall either Thursday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. or Friday from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. They will be re-plated, so you don't have to wrap them. We always sell out early, so we won't have too many!
- Bake breads, cakes, pies, muffins, tarts, etc. Package and label them as you wish and bring them in Thursday or Friday as well.
- If baking is not your strong suit, how about jams, jellies, salsa, and more. These should be labeled as well.
- Bring your jewelry and linens as early in the week as possible for processing and cleaning.
- Contribute nice items to our "Glitz and Glam" booth.
- Donate anything else you wish (except clothing and furniture), from tools and sporting goods, to wall hangings, art, books, trinkets, and everything in between.

Come on Saturday and shop until you drop! You will be amazed at the wonderful items you will find! Lots of artisans have been working hard all year! If you still have items to donate, please bring them to McSpadden Hall during the week.

Come join us for fellowship, fun, and fantastic finds!
See you there.

SUNDAY STE

WANT TO TALK ABOUT THE FUTURE OF NUCC? CONVERSATIONS WITH DAWSON

Would you like to hear from our Senior Minister about how he sees the future of our church? Are you interested in a small-group gathering where you can enjoy one-on-one time both with other Naples UCC members and with Dr. Taylor? Dawson is intentionally setting aside time this fall and early 2019 to answer questions, to hear feedback, and to offer thoughts about where we are as a church and where we are going.

The first two are scheduled and are open to the first 25 people who sign up in the Gathering Place. John and June Ballew will host the first one at their home in The Vineyards on Thursday, November 15 from 7-8:30 p.m. (wine and desserts served). Alan and Ann Olson will host the second one at their home near downtown on Thursday, November 29 from 5-6:30 p.m. (wine and cheese served.) Don't worry; more dates will be added soon and they won't all be on Thursday evenings!

For tickets at $15 in advance call 455-2582; tickets at the door are $20. For more information: www.voicesofnaples.org.

Care for God's Creation: Look at reusable or biodegradable cups if you know your event will have a high waste rate. Events are notorious for wasting food. Stop throwing that food out! Get an accurate guest count and finalize the amount needed with your caterer. Don't overdo it. If you do end up with lots of leftover food consider donating it to those who are in need. It has become considerably easier to do this now so take advantage of local programs.
